ESCUERO RETIRES FROM PORTFOLIO

HERMOSILLO, Mex., Dec. 6.—Francisco Escudero, secretary of foreign relations in the constitutionalists' provisional cabinet, has been retired from the post. This was announced here tonight. Escudero represented his chief in the recent negotiation at Nogales with William Bayard Hale, President Wilson's personal representative.

BULLETIN.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 6.—Heavy fighting is reported to be in progress at Huiztilac, a point situated between the capital and Cuernavaca. One thousand rurales were dispatched from the capital today to reinforce the federalists who are reported to be holding their own against the Zapata forces.

JUAREZ, Mex., Dec. 6.—The feeling spread among rebel leaders today that the Huerta government was preparing some sinister surprises in connection with the projected march of General Francisco Villa's army toward Mexico City. That the federal troops had abandoned almost all of the northern part of the republic after they had been beaten and forced to seek safety in the mountains on the United States border and that General Salvador Mercado, the federal commander, had pronounced his forces bankrupt, was not accepted as indicating that the rebels would be unresisted in their advance south. Some belief was expressed that the federalists had an object in evacuating Chihuahua and other isolated federal garrisons where it was impossible for them to do much more than defend themselves and that their purpose in abandoning their posts was to permit a more concerted and energetic defense in the central and southern states where forts are more numerous and communication among them is easier.

General Villa's intention to augment his present army of seven thousand by the scattered bands of about Torreon and Zacatecas and to mass a solid force of 20,000 or more rebels on the march to Mexico City would place the rebels in a unique position. Heretofore they have been scattered while the strength of the federalists was divided by their having to garrison the northern cities.

As the rebels gain territory the relative positions of the federalists and rebels will be reversed, the latter having to protect what they have won while the federalists will be at liberty for aggressive fighting. It was this condition that led Villa to consider whether the government at Mexico City was not planning a campaign of considerable extent further south where comparatively undisciplined rebel forces might have to contend with greater numbers and superior fighting machinery. Now tomorrow was fixed by General Villa for his entry into Chihuahua, the state capital, evacuated a week ago by General Mercado, who with his other generals and five thousand troops and civilians are fleeing toward the border.

Rebels Receive Check.
Washington, Dec. 6.—Confidential reports indicate that the victorious march southward of the constitutional armies in Mexico has received a check the extent of which is not yet known. That the rebel leaders themselves have taken and are preparing to modify their plans of campaigns was affirmed. It is understood that the federal leaders in the north who, after the supposed defeat sustained by them in the battle at Tierra Blanca, were believed to be fleeing northward in an effort to find refuge across the border in Texas actually had abandoned that purpose. Instead, it is reported, they have re-organized their forces and begun a flanking movement of the army which the rebel general Villa has rushed from the captured city of Juarez towards Chihuahua.

Villa's line is very much extended and his communications would be seriously jeopardized by a sudden incursion from a formidable force of 1,500 federalists commanded by Orozco, which rapidly is advancing toward him, apparently with the purpose of driving him into Chihuahua.

Federalists Concentrating.
Meanwhile at least two other federal generals with fragments of the army re-assembled after the battle of Tierra Blanca are reported to be concentrating on Chihuahua with the purpose of entrapping Villa's command. This movement might fail if it is plotted out through the reinforcement of Villa's command by Carranza's troops.

If the federal troops adhere to their original plan of making their way into the United States instead

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES MAY TAKE HAND IN CASE

WHITE SLAVERS HAVE NEW METHOD OF PROCURING GIRLS

Investigation is Result of Experience of Mrs. Marjory Graff in a Moving Picture Theatre—Five Similar Cases Are Reported to Newark Police.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 6.—Federal as well as state authorities are likely to take a hand in the solution of the poison needle mystery growing out of the experience of Mrs. Marjory Graff in a moving picture theatre two days ago. So far the only arrest is that of a young South American Amand Megaro, who is held in $20,000 bond on an assault charge made by Mrs. Graff after a man seated near her in a box jabbed a needle into her arm and she was seized with drowsiness. The cases of five young women reported to have been victims of experiences similar to those of Mrs. Graff are being investigated by the police of this city, however, and the attention of the federal authorities here has been brought to the Graff case in connection with their inquiry in several white slave cases.

Charles F. Lynch, United States assistant district attorney said today that the government authorities would act if it was shown that a "needle gang" was operating between this state and New York.

Sociological workers here and in New York city have laid emphasis on the Graff case in their public warnings regarding methods of white slavers in procuring girls. They pointed out that hypodermic needles may be bought for fifty cents each and that the degenerates have no trouble in purchasing drugs. The police here at present are withholding the names of all the reported victims except Miss Jeanette Clark, 19 years old, who said today she had been attacked in the way Mrs. Graff was and in the same theatre on Thanksgiving night.

The needle found near Mrs. Graff's seat in the theatre had not been dipped in poison so far as a microscopic scrutiny showed today. A chemical examination is to be made however, in an effort to determine the nature of the poison used.

ATTORNEYS ASK THAT ORDER OF DISMISSAL BE SET ASIDE

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 6.—Attorneys representing those who are contesting the Tazewell county court house bond issue on the ground that the woman's suffrage law in Illinois is unconstitutional today made a motion in the Tazewell county circuit court asking that the order of dismissal entered yesterday be set aside. The petitions were dismissed by Judge T. N. Green after enough of the petitioners had withdrawn their names to make them without a sufficient number of signers. The attorneys for certain petitioners who are contesting the bond issue, contend that the court is without jurisdiction and that the petitioners acted in good faith and that they cannot legally withdraw from a quo warranto proceeding. The court will pass on the motion next week.

MOTHER-IN-LAW DANGEROUS TO MARTIAL HAPPINESS

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—As a destroyer of martial happiness mothers in law are six times more dangerous than fathers-in-law, according to records of the court of domestic relations. Forty six per cent of the cases brought into this court have been caused by liquor, Chief Justice Olson of the Municipal court reported today.

"In half of the cases of unhappiness in homes brought in the domestic court the families have been re-united," said Judge Olson. "This has largely been due to the influence of such women as Dr. Anna Dwyer, who have gone down to the cause of each case to find the remedy. 'Crime is static today. By looking at our books I can tell you with five cases of the number of burglaries which will occur in Chicago next year.'"

of surrendering to the constitutionalists, they will have to do without conditions and probably will not be permitted to figure further in the present war in Mexico. Secretary Garrison said today that these fugitives might cross the line but they must do so without any undertaking on the part of the state's officials to permit them to return to Mexico at Ojinaga.

Is Encamped at Sauz.
General Villa tonight was encamped at Sauz, about thirty miles north of Chihuahua. Communication between the city and his camp was by courier as the telegraph between the points had not been restored.

Word came from the vicinity of Ojinaga on the Texas border that General Mercado and the other federal officers and troops were moving slowly. Many of the civilians were on foot. The rebels guaranteed not to disturb them until the border was reached. Somewhere behind the refugees a bullion train is straggling across the desert with $2,500,000 worth of metal from the silver mines at Parral. This place has been cut off from train service for months and it was decided to bring the silver to the border in wagons.

FIFTY THREE DIE IN TEXAS FLOODS

SCORES OF OTHERS REPORTED LOST IN FLOOD SWEEPED VALLEYS

Thousands Have Been Driven to the Upper Floors of Their Homes by the Rising Waters of the Brazos and Trinity Rivers—Many Seek Refuge in Trees.

BRYAN, Texas, Dec. 6.—Fifty-three persons are known to be dead and scores of others are reported to have lost their lives in the floods which have been sweeping the valleys of the Brazos and Trinity rivers in central and south-central Texas since early in the week.

Thousands of persons were driven to the upper floors of their homes by the rising waters or were compelled to seek refuge in trees where they remained for hours and in some cases for two days before being rescued. Estimates of the damage generally center around $4,000,000.

One of the deepest overflows was in the Brazos bottoms of this section where boatmen reported no houses visible when they made their final trips before dark tonight. A number of towns that had been isolated for two days reported today, each telling of property loss over wide areas, but of few drownings.

Adding to the Trouble.
The Colorado river also is adding to the trouble of the flood situation. At Layton, a small town on the Lower Colorado, the water tonight was three feet deep over the highest elevation. Bay City, 25 miles from the mouth of the Colorado, reported the water within twenty-eight inches of the top of the protection levee. Columbia, about 15 miles from the Brazos mouth was surrounded by water but reported that no great damage was feared.

The most serious situation was caused by the breaking of the levee, thirty miles in length, on the Brazos opposite Bryan. More than 1,000 persons had refused to believe it would give way and remained in their homes which were submerged.

The Brazos bottoms, one of the richest farm land sections of the state were thickly populated.

Concentrating at Navasota.
Wellborn, Texas, Dec. 6.—The flood in the Brazos river now is concentrating at Navasota at the junction of that stream and its tributary the Little Brazos. On the Allen plantation near Navasota, twelve negroes and one white man are said to have been drowned today.

Twenty-five negroes are reported to have lost their lives on the John Parker plantation on the main stream near Wellborn.

The Parker plantation housed 100 families and their homes for a stretch of a mile have been swept away. How many persons were rescued is in doubt. Parker himself was last seen yesterday with John Gordon another well known planter on the roof of a barn floating down the stream.

Tonight fifty persons were marooned in a gin house on an island at Horse Shoe Bend, the most dangerous part of the river. At Knobe Bridge, a hamlet, three hundred refugees are also sheltered in a gin house. High winds prevented rescuers approaching their refuge. No reports have been received at a late hour tonight from the Allen farm where it was said the flood had claimed thirteen lives.

TEDFORD FINDS FRIEND IN JUDGE JOHN GIBBONS

If Necessary Judge Will Issue Writ of Habeas Corpus Unless Tedford Is Implicated in Misplacing of Mandate.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—Joshua Tedford, who has arisen to commercial prominence here in the seven years during which a mandate committing him to prison was misplaced, found in friends in Judge John Gibbons today.

"If the laws of this state are interpreted to mean that this redeemed man must go to prison I'll resign from the bench," said the judge.

He added that if necessary he would be glad to issue a writ of habeas corpus for Tedford unless the latter was proved to have been implicated in misplacing the mandate. Thus far the state's attorney has taken no action in the case.

Friends of Governor Dunne who have interested themselves in the case have assured Tedford that he may rest easy and that the governor will pardon him formally as soon as the papers are prepared. The documents may be dispatched to Springfield late today.

PADEREWSKI THREATENED: SIX DETECTIVES GUARD HIM

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 6.—Six detectives tonight guarded Ignace Jan Paderewski, the Polish pianist, who received letters threatening his life. The letters were mailed to him while he was in St. Louis and promised revenge for his alleged support of an anti-Jewish newspaper at Warsaw. Paderewski asserted the threat was the personal expression of a "fanatic unqualified to speak for the Jewish people."

ST. LOUIS WOMAN DIES.

The situation in central and southern Mexico is as threatening to Huerta as that in the northern half. General Zapata has control of a vast section, including several states south of Mexico City, and General Blanguet, minister of war in the Huerta cabinet, has begun a campaign to keep the Zapatistas at a safe distance from the capital. General Blanguet is at the left, and General Zapata is at the right in the illustration.

TWO POLICEMEN DIE IN FIGHT WITH NEGROES

THREE ARE DEAD AS RESULT OF EN-COUNTER AT ST. CHARLES

Surviving Negroes Are Captured By Posse and Are Taken To St. Louis In Order To Save Them From Lynching at the Hands of Mob.

ST. CHARLES, Mo., Dec. 6.—Policeman David Lamb was fatally wounded and John Blair, was killed by three negroes late this afternoon. The negroes were shooting "craps" on the street when the policemen attempted to arrest them. They resisted arrest and in the encounter that followed both policemen were shot. Lamb killed the negro who fired the shot which killed Blair. One of the other negroes then shot Lamb. The two surviving negroes escaped on a freight train. Policeman Lamb was taken to a hospital and physicians said he could live but a few hours.

Negroes Are Captured.
A posse in charge of a deputy sheriff started in automobiles in pursuit of the negroes and overtook them at Texas Junction, ten miles east of here. A fight ensued, in which one of the negroes was shot in the leg.

When the news of their capture reached here a mob of several hundred armed men set out to meet them and a lynching is feared.

Intense excitement prevails tonight among both the whites and negroes of the town.

Are Taken To St. Louis.
Late tonight the mayor refused to allow the negro prisoners to be brought here, as he feared they would be lynched. They were taken to St. Louis.

COAL AND PROVISION FAMINE IS BROKEN

SITUATION AT DENVER IS REPORTED TO BE RAPIDLY IMPROVING

Cripple Creek Is In Darkness Owing To the Burning of the Power Plant—Fifteen Feet of Snow Covers That District—Train Still Snowbound at Summit.

DENVER, Dec. 6.—Men carrying between ten and fifteen bags of coal, old fashioned drags carrying coal, sleighs laden with milk cans and wagons drawn by four and five spans of horses burdened with other provisions tonight were breaking what had begun to be a serious coal and famine in Denver because of the more than three feet of snow which covered the city and blocked all sorts of traffic for more than three days.

Reports from the state tonight indicate that Cripple Creek, high in the mountains, is in a critical condition due to the blizzard which struck that gold mining town last night and today. The power plant has burned to the ground. The town is in absolute darkness save the light from the candles and coal oil lamps. Fifteen feet of snow covers the district. Six business houses practically were destroyed by the wind and scores of other dwellings and business houses were badly damaged.

A train on the Colorado Springs, Cripple Creek & Florence railroad, the "short line" which left Cripple Creek Thursday, still is snowbound at Summit, one of the highest points traversable section of the Rocky Mountains. A relief party left Colorado Springs today on snow shoes and skis carrying provisions.

Reports of missing men were received in Colorado Springs constantly today from mountain points.

PEORIA MAN IS STABBED TO DEATH DURING QUARREL

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 6.—D. D. Harris of this city was stabbed to death during a quarrel here tonight by W. B. Moore. A small pocket knife was the weapon used. Moore is in jail.

Because a woman in his home was sick, Moore warned a number of boys not to roller skate on the cement sidewalk in front of his house. Harris interceded on behalf of the boys and the quarrel ensued. He was cut in a number of places.

WARMEST FALL IN HISTORY NEAR END

COLDER WEATHER PREDICTED IN MIDDLE WEST FOR TOMORROW

Spring Like Conditions Are Prevalent in Indiana, Iowa, Illinois and Other States of Central West and Bring Unseasonable Activity in Plant Life.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The central west is experiencing a climatic phenomenon according to information gathered in Indiana, Iowa, Illinois and other states. These reports indicate that conditions of spring are widely prevalent and show an unusual unseasonable activity in plant life. Throughout the three states, buds are sprouting, flowers are manifesting an intention to bloom, and shrubs and vegetables are showing the first signs of green. At Alton, Ill., pansies, violets and strawberry plants are in full bloom. In southern St. Clair county, Illinois, peach trees are in bloom, a rose garden is a mass of buds and blossoms and one farmer has cut a second crop of asparagus. Fruit growers in that district predict next year's fruit crop will be reduced if not destroyed by the rising of the sap at this time of the year.

Near Carmi, Ill., alfalfa fields are green and growing and elm, cottonwood and maple trees are budding. Early vegetables are found in some gardens near Carmi, Ill., and similar conditions are reported at Danville and Decatur.

Mount Pleasant, Ia., has the most spring-like weather ever known at this time of the year. On the state university campus at Iowa City, Illinois buds are bursting, violets are in bloom and dandelions and soft maples are ready to flower. Fall wheat is from three to six inches high near Clarinda, Ia. Truck gardeners still are gathering their harvest near Columbus, Ind., and a few farmers have water melons which they hope will be ripe by Christmas.

Lawn-mowers have been put in use again at Greensburg, Ind., livestock still is grazing around Elkhart and unusually mild weather has created a condition of early spring at Tipton and Logansport.

Cold weather is predicted in the middle west for Monday and will bring to an end what is considered the warmest fall in the history of the weather bureau.

WILL REDUCE PARCEL POST PACKAGE RATES

Inter-State Commerce Commission Approves Rate Reductions
In 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Zones

TO INCREASE WEIGHT LIMIT

Weight Limit of Packages In First and Second Zones Is Increased from 20 to 50 Lbs., and 11 to 20 Lbs., In All Others

CHANGES EFFECTIVE JANUARY FIRST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Postmaster General Burleson's proposals to increase the weight limits of parcel post packages in the first and second zones from twenty to fifty pounds to admit books to the parcel post and to reduce rates in the third, fourth fifth and sixth zones, was approved today by the inter-state commerce commission.

The maximum weight of parcels to all zones beyond the second was increased from 11 to 20 pounds. The approved changes in rates and weights to be in effect January 1st, 1914 follow: To reduce the rates for the third zone from seven cents for the first pound and five cents for each additional pound to six cents for the first pound and two cents for each additional pound.

To reduce the rates for the fourth zone from eight cents for the first pound and six cents for each additional pound to seven cents for the first pound and four cents for each additional pound.

To reduce the rates for the fifth zone from nine cents for the first pound and seven cents for each additional pound to eight cents for the first pound and six cents for each additional pound.

To reduce the rates for the sixth zone from ten cents for the first pound and nine cents for each additional pound to nine cents for the first pound and eight cents for each additional pound.

Expects Little Opposition.

"It seems obvious," says the commission, "that the service to the public will be promoted by these changes provided the revenue from the service is not less than the cost thereof. Your experiences and statistics seem to show clearly that the revenue will not be less than the cost of the service."

"We can conceive no opposition to the increased weights and reduced rates proposed except from the carriers that transport the mails. We have had some objections from them on the ground that the increased weight should not be permitted until provision for additional compensation to the carriers has been made."

It is provided by the postmaster general, with the consent of the commission "that the rate of postage on parcels containing books weighing eight ounces or less shall be one cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof, and on those weighing in excess of eight ounces, the zone parcel post rates shall apply. This is to be effective March 16th, 1914."

Serious objections to the proposed change in the rates on books and catalogues were made chiefly by matters of heavy catalogues, but the commission says it feels that the changes are in the interest of the public generally. Consent also was given by the commission to the admission of shipments of gold, gold bullion and gold dust in Alaska and to and from Alaska in packages weighing not more than eleven pounds. The rate of postage fixed is two cents an ounce or fraction thereof for all distances.

"The postmaster general issued an order effective August 15th, last, increasing the weight limit in the first and second zones from eleven to twenty pounds and materially reducing the rates of postage for these zones and stated at that time that this step was in the nature of an experiment," said a statement issued tonight by the postoffice department. "After these changes had been in operation for some time a record was kept of the number of parcels handled in a large number of representative postoffices throughout the United States and the reports received from these offices show that the changes in the service have been greatly appreciated by the public. The number of parcels handled in the first and second zones since these became effective, show an increase of approximately sixteen per cent. The average weight limit has also increased from 12 to 17 pounds per parcel and notwithstanding the great reduction in rates in the first and second zones the average postage has increased per parcel from 7.7 cents to 8 cents."

The statement says of the change relating to books that "has strongly been urged by circulating libraries, schools, colleges and publishers ever since the establishment of the parcel post service as the present restrictive weight limit and rates on books are prohibitive to a great extent except in the case of catalogues and that it was not deemed advisable to place the order changing the classification of books in effect on January 1st, as it was desired to give at least three months notice to firms whose catalogues are now being printed."

VARIOUS FIRMS ANXIOUS TO BUY PROPOSED LIGHT BONDS

City Would Have No Difficulty in Raising of Issue at Par Although Five Percent Is Low Figure.

That the five per cent light bonds of Jacksonville will not go begging for want of purchasers if authorized at the coming election is proven by the offers that have been made to the city council for the issue at par. Several such offers have been received by mail from well known bond houses. One firm in Chicago spent a special representative to the city to try and arrange for the purchase of the issue, the contract to be depended upon the result of the election. As a matter of fact however, the law requires that the city council must sell the bonds after bids have been received. Two of the offers to take the bonds at par include an agreement to pay the expense of lithographing the bonds which is some instances has occasioned the city a large expense.

A night letter from one firm addressed to C. R. Knollenberg, commissioner of accounts and finances reads as follows:

"Understand Jacksonville votes 20th relative fifty light bonds. Sent representative to make city proposition and strongly urge immediate sale to us. Willing to take five at par, subject favorable election city under no obligation if bonds defeated. Large cities such as Elgin and Decatur issued five. On comparative showing Jacksonville should be higher rate. However if possible close for issue immediately as we are willing to take five at par. Will lithograph bonds and close matter to city's entire satisfaction."

DISCUSSED MEXICAN CONDITIONS.

Congregation Brotherhood Hear a Fine Address by Dr. Post.

The Brotherhood of the Congregational church met Friday night at the regular monthly date and had an excellent supper, after which they listened to a fine address by Dr. Post on Mexico. The reverend gentlemen first gave a brief history of the country, its rulers down to the beginning of the present difficulties and told in plain and well chosen terms the character of the Aztecs, and also said that in many respects the Mexican himself was hardly as bad as he had been painted and mentioned the testimony of several who had employed them.

He paid a just and glowing tribute to the great Jaurez and gave a fair and impartial view of the character and work of Diaz, the deposed president, who had done so much for the country. He gave his opinion regarding the course the United States should pursue in aiding the bringing about of peace and tranquility. The lecture was well received and very able and instructive.

A member who had traveled twice through the country exhibited a number of photographs and curios he had gathered while there.

HOUSEWIVES

Do you know that W. D. Cody sells the best and highest quality flour in Jacksonville and that the name of that flour is Zephyr! Zephyr!

To prove this statement we point to the record made at the state fair baking contest in Springfield. The winners in this bread show were:

First Prize (sweepstakes) Mrs. A. A. Johnson, 1313 South 10th St., Springfield.

Second Prize (sweepstakes) Mrs. C. H. ones, 110 Bond ave., Springfield. Zephyr flour thus won both first and second prizes over bread from twenty other brands of flour. The loaves displayed were baked from twenty-two brands in addition to Zephyr, some of the best known and most advertised brands on the market today like Seal of Minnesota, Gold Medal, Pillsbury, Ceresota, Occident, Aristos and Snow White. It was easily shown that Zephyr flour had no equal among them.

Why not pay cash and get the highest quality flour here at a saving of 25 cents to 45 cents per sack.

ENGLISH ROYALTY WILL VISIT AT CHATSWORTH

Is Accounted One of Finest Estate in All England—Waters Works and Conservatory Greatest Glories.

London, Dec. 6.—Chatsworth, where King George and Queen Mary are to spend the coming week as guests of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, is one of the finest estates in all England and has been a frequent visiting place for all royalty. This will be the first visit of the present king and queen to Chatsworth since their accession, although as Prince and Princess of Wales they frequently stopped there as guests of the late duke.

The late King Edward and Queen Alexandra paid numerous visits to Chatsworth. Their earlier visits were during the lifetime of the seventh Duke of Devonshire, who died in 1891. In later years they were the guests there of the eighth duke, who before his succession to the title had become famous in public life as Lord Hartington. The duke was a particular friend of King Edward. He died in 1908 and was succeeded by the present duke. The latter was Victor Charles William Cavendish, son of Frederick Charles Cavendish, who was murdered in Phoenix Park in 1882. His wife, the present Duchess of Devonshire, was Lady Evelyn Fitzmaurice, elder daughter of Lord Landsdowne.

Queen Victoria and Prince Albert were splendidly entertained by the sixth duke of Devonshire at Chatsworth in 1844, when the royal party was conveyed in coaches and six from Chesterfield, which at that time was the nearest station. A ball was given and the gardens and fountains were superbly illuminated.

The Chatsworth gardens, which are laid out in the formal style, include 80 acres of mown lawns. There is a remarkable arboretum on the slope of the hill, but the water-works, which were copied from Versailles, and the famous conservatory are the glories of the place. The park is large, picturesque and well wooded, and is intersected by the Derwent.

The house is filled with art treasures, and the state apartments display some of the finest wood carving in England. There is an immense and very fine collection of pictures, and the sculpture gallery contains several of the best statues by Canova and Thorwaldsen. The library comprises one of the most valuable collections of rare books and ancient illuminated manuscripts in Europe, including the "Liber Veritatis," for which the sixth duke refused an offer of $60,000.

The Cavendishes are an ancient and illustrious race. The first of history makes mention is Sir John Cavendish, who is supposed to have been the identical individual who killed Wat Tyler, though the honor is disputed with him by William Walsworth, lord mayor of London, who also had a hand in the episode which terminated the career of the radical who fancied that a demand for reform would be answered in any other way than by a knock on the head or a stab in the abdomen in the merry old times. Anyhow, Cavendish was rewarded by Richard II. with a pension of $200 a year for his spirited conduct, and his descendant, Sir William, who had the judgment to desert Cardinal Wolsey for Henry VIII. in the very nick of time obtained from the latter an enormous slice of abbey funds and lands at the dissolution of the monasteries. Subsequent wealthy marriages have made the Cavendishes what they are.

OBSERVE TUBERCULOSIS DAY.

New York, Dec. 6.—The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which has its headquarters in this city, is in receipt of advices indicating that tomorrow's observance of National Tuberculosis day will be far more general throughout the country than any previous observance of the day. One hundred thousand churches, schools, labor unions, fraternal orders and other organizations have signified their willingness to aid in the movement. President Wilson, former Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, Cardinal Gibbons and numerous other men eminent in public life and in the church and educational activities of the nation have given their endorsement to the movement, while the federal government has taken cognizance of the aims of the anti-tuberculosis society by instructing that tuberculosis day shall be observed in all of the mission churches and schools on the various Indian reservations.

FAULTY DIGESTION

Quickly Shatters the Nervous System—Immediate Action Necessary—Try Mi-o-na.

When you feel irritable, tired and despondent—when you have nervous twitches, specks before the eyes, headaches, sour stomach, heartburn, indigestion and pains in the colon and bowels—you suffer from indigestion, which soon develops into dyspepsia—the chief cause of nerve exhaustion—you need Mi-o-na at once.

Mi-o-na is a specific for stomach weakness—it goes to the seat of your trouble and quickly and surely ends stomach misery. It builds up and strengthens the stomach walls and glands, improves quickly the digestive system, then the vital force and nerve energy are restored and strength and good spirits come to the discouraged, rundown and weak.

Do not suffer another day. Get a fifty cent box of Mi-o-na Tablets at your nearest drug store—keep them with you constantly for this treatment will help you get well and strong and immediate relief is sure. Do not delay. Delays are not only dangerous, but needless. If not benefited Mi-o-na costs nothing. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

CORNERSTONE FOR EIGHTH GRADE BUILDING ARRIVES

Formal Exercises Will Probably be Held Tuesday—Work on Building Progresses Rapidly.

The cornerstone of the eighth grade building was received Saturday. After E. E. Bavington, chairman of the building committee, had been notified of the arrival of the stone he held a conference with Mayor Davis and it was decided to hold a called meeting of the Board of Education Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. At this meeting it will be settled whether or not any formal exercises will be held in connection with the laying of the cornerstone. It is likely that some brief exercises will be arranged and that the ceremonies will take place on Tuesday. It has been suggested that the most appropriate thing to do on this occasion would be to have some exercises in which the pupils of the high school, the seventh and eighth grades, and possibly pupils of some lower grades could take part. This suggestion seems to be a very timely one as a brief program with the pupils themselves as the principal participants would really have more general interest than a formal program of addresses such as usually mark such occasions.

The continued warm weather has made it possible for work to be pushed very rapidly on the building and John Wolke, the contractor, feels that the progress has been excellent. H. DeCastro and Company, who have the contract for the masonry, are using ten bricklayers in addition to other labor and have pushed along the work on the walls to such an extent that the window frames of the first story are already in position.

No matter how small a quantity of lumber you need it is worth while to order it from the Crawford Lumber yard.

WORK ON MILL PROGRESSES.

Work is progressing very rapidly on the new Crawford planing mill and it is the intention to begin putting on the roof of the main building tomorrow as all but one of the steel supports for the roof were in position Saturday afternoon. The house which had to be moved from the site of the new building was purchased by Simeon Fernandes and will occupy a site on Washington street.

DISCUSS "THE PEOPLE'S RULE."

Washington, Dec. 6.—The first national wide, non-partisan assemblage of men interested in promoting popular government measures ever held in the United States met in the capital today under the auspices of the National Popular Government league. The feature of the opening session was an address by Secretary of State William J. Bryan, who took as his subject, "The People's Rule." Other men of prominence who addressed the meeting were Senator Clapp of Minnesota, Senator Hollis of New Hampshire, Senator Poinsett of Washington, and Prof. Lewis, J. Johnson of Harvard university.

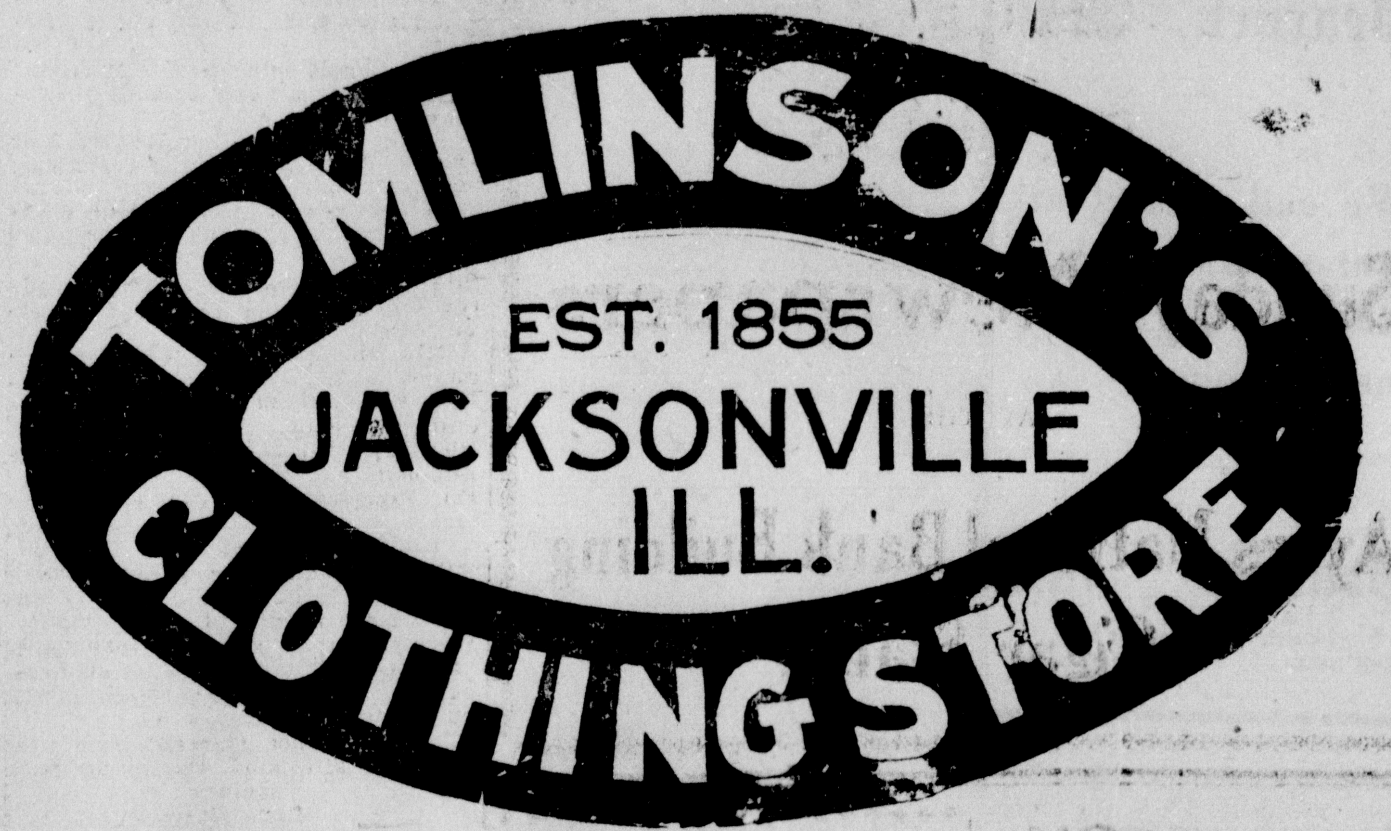

The league proposes to become a militant force in promoting the adoption of popular government measures throughout the country. A bureau for the distribution of literature is already established. In addition, the league plans to maintain a bureau of information on all popular government measures and to furnish scientific standards of these measures to legislators and all other persons interested in the movement for popular rule.

I would appreciate settlement by those who are indebted to me before the holidays.

TO USE SHOCK CORN SILAGE.

A kind of silage not heretofore used in Morgan county is to be tried by Jacob Ornellas who has just purchased a silo from Martin Brothers. It is 12x30 feet in dimensions, made of Oregon fir and will be placed in position at once on his farm north-east of the city. He will cut shock corn and place in this silo after having soaked it thoroughly with water. Corn is usually placed in silos in a green state but it is said that matured corn handled in the way suggested makes splendid ensilage.

CHAPIN AND ARENIVILLE
DIVIDE HONORS IN GAME

Areniville Boys Annex Their Contest and Girls Lose to Chapin Lassies in Basketball.

The basketball teams of Chapin
 and Areniville high schools divided honors last night, into well played games on the floor of the Chapin hall. The boys game ended 18 to 20, in favor of Areniville and the girls contest went 11 to 10 in favor of Chapin. Both contests were hotly fought and the Chapin players were congratulating themselves on their excellent showing from the fact that this is the first time that the Chapin school ever attempted basketball.

The first game played was between the boys and the following
 was the lineup:
 Chapin—Forwards, Antrobus and
 Anderson; center, Taylor; guards,
 Mathers and Perbix.

Areniville—Forwards, Rexroth
 and McElroy; center, Heilman;
 guards, Prouditt and Reaugh.
 Heilman and Antrobus were the particular bright stars and the score at the end of the first half was 7 to
 of the first half, 6 to 6, the final score 18 to 20.

The girls put up a good exhibition
 and the contest was tied at the end
 of the first half, 6 to 8, the final score being 11 to 10 in Chapin's favor. The following was the lineup:

Chapin—Forwards, Birdgeman,
 McDaniel; center, SENTRY; guards,
 Baylis and Antrypus.
 Areniville—Forwards, Marie Frye
 and Olga Long; center, Pearl Wood; guards, Imogene Heilman, and Elizabeth Batis.

COL. MOSBY'S 80TH BIRTHDAY.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Col. John Singleton Mosby, the much feared chief of the guerilla raiders in civil war time, celebrated his 80th birthday anniversary today. Of late years Col. Mosby has made his home
 the most of the time with his daughter in this city. Several years ago he underwent an operation and since that time his health has not been of the best, though he is still remarkably vigorous for a man of his years
 and continues to take a keen interest in the affairs of the day.

Born at Edgemont, Va., December 6, 1833, Col. Mosby was practicing law at Bristol when the civil war began. He enlisted immediately in the confederate army and with the exception of a short time when he was disabled by a wound, he served continuously until Lee's surrender.
 The part he played in the big struggle made the union commanders he harassed wish that he had never turned his attention to the art of war. His raid on the rear of Mc-Clellan's army on the Chickahominy was as bold a bit of enterprise as may be read in the history of warfare.

Mosby's famous "rangers" were as picturesque and brave and cavalier
 a lot of fighters as ever went to war. No body of confederate soldiers were feared as were Mosby's men and the colonel was their genus. After Appomattox Col. Mosby disbanded his troops and gave himself up, and upon the recommendation of Grant was released on parole.

The Ladies' Aid of Salem church will hold their annual bazaar and oyster supper at the home of Mr.
 Edward Armstrong, Dec. 10.

 recommend it—apply a little as di-

Submitting to the Inevitable

The different cloak manufacturers on Dec. 1, 2 and 3 held their Annual Clearance Sale. This year their concessions were a total and absolute surrender to the peculiarly unusual weather conditions.

It happened to have been our lot to start in the Cloak and Suit business just remarkable development.

Never in the last 20 years have the weather conditions been more unfavorable and never has there been more clean and desirable merchandise thrown on the market at such ruinous prices.

Our knowledge of the distribution facilities of this store led us to purchase largely with perfect confidence in the belief that these hundreds of cloaks would be sold in Jacksonville and vicinity.

A fact to be remembered, is that being sole agents for the PRINTZESS garments, we are the only ones empowered to show their goods at reduced prices.
 All cloaks are priced in six groups. Hundreds in all to select from with perfect confidence in the styles and guaranteed wearing qualities.

INSTALLS MUSICAL

ELECTRIC BELLS.

A set of musical electric bells has been installed at the Grand Opera house and were in operation for the first time Friday evening. The bells are distributed around in the balcony of the theatre and are connected with a copper keyboard by L. O. S. Johnson, drummer in the orchestra. The different notes of a melody are clearly brought out by the bells and the audience demanded several encores from the numbers played by them Friday night. These bells are practically a new feature and so far there are only a few sets of them installed in the theatres of the state.

WAS IT WORTH WHILE?

"You would have laughed to see the fellows look at me when I went back to work after being away five months," said a rugged and healthy looking boy after his first day back in the factory. Undersized, a victim of tuberculosis, pinched and thin, with a bloodless skin, and apparently half dead when he quit work, there was little wonder that few knew him when he reappeared 23½ pounds heavier and some inches taller, with a healthy color in his face. During his absence he had been at a tuberculosis sanatorium. The company paid half his expenses and Red Cross Seals has provided for the rest. Was it worth while?

CITY OWNERSHIP.

City government in the United States is acknowledged the most conspicuous failure of any of the institutions of the great American republic—city government and city business are both in the same hands. If city business management and city governing could be divorced, no done by the same persons there might be more hope. Then our methods of selecting our city governors and business managers. How do we select them?

Anybody with a seventeen hundred dollar appetite can place himself on the eligible list for one of your city business managers at the next election and you are forced to select five business managers from this list. Experience teaches that appetite for office and capacity for office generally exists in an inverse ratio—the greater the appetite the less the capacity for office.

The city has just about finished up a light plant established 20 years ago, and this bird is now done to a turn under city cooks—burned up and not enough left for a respectable meal of trash and the cooks come back and ask you to please slip another 50,000 dollar bird in the oven so we may learn more of the fine art of municipal cooking—but Mr. Brennan says they have good cooking over at Hannibal and he has been over to visit them but alas Joe, your official life may snuff out and you cannot bequeath to your successor all you know about municipal cookery.

The city Light and Railway company have been running a plant, lighting the city's stores and houses the last 20 years along side of the city owned plant. How do the plants compare at the end of the 20 years?

The one is in fine shape, well kept up, doing its work well ready to extend its light to the streets at a fixed price named in a contract while the other plant owned by the city for the same period of 20 years and operated by managers elected by the city is a junk pile. Why has one been kept up to its full efficiency and the other gone to ruin? Simply due to the difference in owners—one has 15,000 owners the other has practically one.

One operated on business principles for business profit like all the rest of the business of every day life; the other operated pro bono publico—for the public good.

The owners of the McKinley company are in close touch with the business, the owning power and influence is ever present. The fifteen thousand owners of the other plant are no where in evidence, can't be located. Each owner has only a one fifteen-thousandth interest in it anyway—he has paid his taxes to take care of his little interest and under the rules of the whole system he has no effective way of making himself felt—the real owners the people are practically excluded from any effective voice in the management of the plant—and this difference in management spells success or failure.

The hard and fast contract will protect the city against any raising or rates. The Utilities Commission will hold the company to strict compliance with the law, as well as the streets and public parks per year with 3 per cent on gross earnings on light plant, gas plant, railway and heating plant, equal to good dollars, leaving net expense to the city of $3,000 dollars to be paid out of taxes.

If this offer is rejected by the voters and the $50,000 bond issue is voted, the 15,000 owners of the fifty thousand dollars will please retire quietly about your own business. You will not be needed in the task of expending it. You will please not but in on your own chosen representatives. Now this condition is no fault of the commissioners; it is the fault of so called system by which city business is conducted. The less portable property the city owns, the better, streets and parks are different than machinery plants requiring skill and care—the less the city the present electrical plant as a buys and operates the better. Hold all the present electrical plant as a power plant for water and let the company light the streets is the view of one of the 15,000.

OPEN EVENINGS.

The Weather and the Tariff are Two Good Reasons Why We Announce This Sale

Commencing Friday Morning, December 5, and continuing indefinitely, we will inaugurate such a sale of high grade tailored-to-order suits as has had no parallel in the city of Jacksonville—a bonafide sale where quality and low prices will go hand in hand, every piece of cloth and the finished garment absolutely guaranteed satisfactory.

There will be no startling cuts in prices announced, nor will we indulge in any sensational statements and make promises that any person's good judgement would show could not be kept. But there will be such substantial reductions made that no man can afford to overlook this opportunity, and while this sale is announced to continue indefinitely we would suggest that you do not delay too long.

Every piece of goods, every pattern that we shall show you, is the latest of its kind, whether foreign or domestic and guaranteed to be pure wool. Here you will have hundreds of patterns to select from—all the new worsteds, serges, chevots, cassimeres, saxonys, etc., in the latest colors and shades. Not a bolt of our large stock of woollens will be withheld from you, here you will see the whole piece cloth—not a mere scrap of a sample, and it will be unfolded and spread in such shape that you can judge how it will look when made up.

We are going to make a straight reduction of FIVE DOLLARS on every suit—suits that we have heretofore been selling at $20.00 up, and sound values at the price. Think what this will mean to you! You will be able to wear a finely tailored garment, cut to fit you from a guaranteed all-wool pattern of your own selection, for less than you would pay for an inferior ready-made garment. No man now will have an excuse for wearing more or less ill-fitting ready-made clothes. The cheapest ready-made suit that you could afford to wear would cost you $15, while we will make you our regular value $20.00 suit for $15.00—and at this same reduction up through the higher grades of cloth, $5.00 off the price of every suit. Positively, no detail will be slighted. Workmanship, linings, etc., will be the very best. And we recommend for your special attention our regular $20 and $25 suitings as being the most popular values and about the qualities and weights usually called for at this time of year.

A few remarks about the weather—this long and unusually warm period has about paralyzed business in the clothing line. Calculations and preparations made for brisk cold weather trade have been completely upset. No one has been in any hurry to get into heavier clothes. Yet we must keep busy our large force of employes or not be able to have their services when we do need them. We want you to remember also that every garment ordered from us is made here in Jacksonville by home people, people who leave their money here. Our payroll runs over $200 per week.

A few words about the tariff—Under the new tariff on wools and woollens we have been able to effect quit a saving in the purchase of large quantities of fine goods, and under all circumstances we have determined that our best policy is to give you the benefit of the larger part of this saving.

Another suggestion, this will afford a splendid chance to get a suitable Christmas present for some member of your family—come in now and select your pattern. You can make arrangements to have it made up later. We have in stock a splendid line of new goods for fancy vests that also will make ideal Christmas gifts.

Don't overlook this opportunity to buy real suit values for little money—don't wait because the weather may be considered too warm. The weather is uncertain. It changes suddenly and you will need that suit sooner than you imagine.

THE JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL
Established 1843
Published by
JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL CO.

"S. P. U. G." is the name of a new society, for the "Prevention of Useless Giving" at this holiday time, that will be used by many as a means of escaping Christmas giving. If it had been made S. P. E. G.—a society for the prevention of extravagance in giving it might have been productive of more good. "Useless giving" is rare—extravagance is common. When gifts are made at Christmas time purely as a matter of friendship or regard, as a loving token from one member of a family to another, the result is for good, and adds pleasure to the holiday season. Or when it is a gift, from the heart, to benefit some needy person or children, it brings joy to the recipient and to a still greater extent to the donor. There is little that can be called useless if given in the right spirit. The question of the cost is not so great a matter if one keeps within their means, and gives only from a spirit of thankfulness for the good of others. Sometimes a gift to a friend, as a token of that friendship, adds a great deal to the joy of living for both parties, even though the "cost" in dollars and cents be very small.

Some of our benevolent societies have established a custom in the past few years that is deserving of praise—that of appointing committees to investigate the needs of worthy people, and to provide for many families on Christmas day. It was a great surprise to some of the investigators last year to find so many families who might be benefited by the expenditure of comparatively few dollars—deserving people who do not make their wants known on the street corners, yet were thankful for a "Christmas gift" when given in the right spirit. Do not be extravagant in your giving—yet there are many who could, without injury to themselves, add to the happiness and comfort of others, in their own families and outside, by giving in a spirit of helpfulness and love.

The Courier says: "It certainly would be interesting if the Journal can secure from the ten directors of the Chamber of Commerce who voted for endorsement of the bond issue a statement as to just why they so voted. There is no question as to the standing and honesty of purpose of the ten, but as a matter of fact only three or four of them voted for endorsement because they are convinced that the bond issue is the best thing for the city."

Those voting for endorsement were Dr. Bowe, W. J. Brady, Frank Byrns, W. S. Ehle, Henry Rodgers, Henry Frisch, Joseph R. Harker, A. R. Taylor, T. M. Tomlinson and J. W. Walton. Those voting against, unequivocally, were G. E. Doying and J. G. Reynolds. Mr. Heil voting against, but saying that he was still uncertain as to the best action to take. We still assert that the ten above named have the best reasons why they voted so. They are not men who enter into a business agreement or endorse a business undertaking, such as the issuance of $50,000 in bonds, without being fully able to give good reasons for the faith that is in them.

H. J. Rodgers, owner of an electric light plant in another town, and one of the ten who voted for the endorsement of the $50,000 issue of bonds to maintain our city plant, gives reasons which are worthy the thought of every voter in this city. He says: "The only reason I am advocating the present bond issue is because I think it is a matter of great concern of the Jacksonville of today, and of the future, to rehabilitate our present light plant and not to have it go out of business. I say I am not specially opposed to the local utility corporation, but you and I know that a lighting cororation in this city, or in any other city, charges its consumers just whatever the situation will stand. With all competition eliminated and practically all possibility of competition eliminated, I maintain that the local company will not have the same incentive to lower prices that there would certainly be with the possibility of competition constantly looming up on the horizon.

"If the light plant goes out of business and the local utility company has an absolute monopoly of the lighting proposition, I maintain that we do not have the same chance for getting low rates and good service that the city would have if the municipal plant was still in existence."

Citizen Miser says the issuance of bonds for the extension of our municipal electric light plant "is for the purpose of providing ourselves with a municipal light plant which may be termed strictly as a venture." Yes, a venture of twenty years standing—a venture which for the past eighteen years has paid an profit or saving to the city of $8,518.16 per year—would we had more ventures of that sort.

The Jacksonville Railway & Light plant are now practically re-building a large part of their works on South Main street. Is the work being done with cash on hand from earnings or as a result of bonds issued or sold? The answer would probably be that it is none of our business, providing the work is done. "Lowest rates for electricity are most profitable," says Supt. Miser.

For the second time within a few months the ladies of this city will be called upon to vote upon a question of public policy—This month upon the issuance of bonds to improve, maintain and extend our municipal electric light plant. The ticket to be voted will read as follows: "Shall bonds or obligations for the purpose of extending the electric light system of the city of Jacksonville in the sum of $50,000 be issued by the city council of the city of Jacksonville."

The voter is called on to mark

"yes" or "no" as his or her judgment tells him is for the best interests of the entire city.

The bonds are not for the building of a new plant, for entering into a new and untried business, but for the purpose of "extending" a plant or system already owned by the city.

A clause of the law provides for the levy of a direct annual tax for the retirement or payment of these bonds in twenty years, the highest amount levied for any year being $5,000 for the first year, 1914, ranging down to $2,265 in 1933. So that the increase of taxes in any one year on the average tax-payer would be infinitesimal.

The present municipal plant has been owned and operated by the city for over twenty years. During a part of that time the city was as well lighted as any of its size in the state. Of late years the plant has been in such condition from wear and tear and general depreciation that many of our streets have been very dimly lighted. The plant has been nearly worn out. There are additional reasons for its rehabilitation and extension in that it is proposed to add sufficient power so that during the daylight hours it may be used in pumping water from the city wells—combining the two departments to such an extent as to effect in a large measure a saving to the city the amounts that have in the past been paid to the local company for power, amounting at times to $2,700 per month.

The plant has unquestionably accomplished good results in its day, not only in lighting, but in money actually saved to the city. Commissioner Brennan has made a statement, showing that in the past eighteen years the present plant has cost the city, including original cost, and extensions, added improvements, maintenance, depreciation and 5 per cent interest on all, $243,467.15, and that its earnings in that time have been $98,000, a gain or net profit to the city in the eighteen years of $154,532.85, or $8,585.16 per year.

That would seem to be a saving worth while.

The Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. say they are prepared to light the city for $12,000 per year—but that is for light only—power used must be added to that amount, together with the cost of lighting our schools and public buildings.

Do you care to abandon a municipal plant already owned by the city, a plant that in the past eighteen years has saved the city $154,532.85? Abandon that plant, and pay to the private corporation $216,000 in the next eighteen years, and be compelled to purchase their street lighting plant if at any time the municipality desired to re-enter the field of city lighting.

Or by voting for the bonds, $50,000, enable the city not only to continue the plant for street lighting, but to add to it for almost the same cost of maintenance, the lighting of our schools and city buildings, heat for the city hall, and the police and fire department alarm systems?

The law upon which all will be called upon to vote does not contemplate the issuance and sale of bonds in a bunch, but only as needed to accomplish the work in view. Section 4 says: "The bonds hereby authorized shall be issued and sold from time to time as the proceeds are needed for the purpose authorized by this ordinance."

And it is well to note that in case these bonds are voted, and the plant extended, there is a provision in the present law by which, for the further extension of the system, the city "can finance the same way that private corporations do. Merely issue bonds secured by the utilities themselves, instead of being secured by general faith and credit of the city."

The city, maintaining its own system and plant, is authorized under a new law enacted this year, to enter the commercial lighting field. It is not claimed that $50,000 would enable them to do this. Nor do we believe that it is desired that they should.

But there is plenty of room for two plants—the present municipal plant, to operate for city purposes in every sense, the other the Jacksonville Railway, Light and Power Co. in the commercial field.

The municipal plant, however, will be a wholesome check on exorbitant rates in the commercial fields—because at any time the citizens become dissatisfied they can, by vote of the people—further extend their plant, as bonds are retired and the earnings justify.

This is not used in any offensive sense, only to show that a sure way to safeguard the interests of all to the greatest possible extent is to vote the bonds to enable the city to maintain and extend the plant we already own.

Keep our own house in good repair and encourage the other fellow to do likewise—for the betterment of the city.

This is the problem briefly before the voters, ladies as well as men. We have no fear of the result as far as the ladies are concerned, for as a rule they are investigating—seeking knowledge regarding the question they, with other voters, are called upon to decide.

BUYING ELECTRICITY.

(From Springfield Register.)

The issue involved in the proposition to combine the municipally-owned water and light plants is a momentous one.

This is not the only city which is alive to the importance of the issue. This is not the only city where monopoly and the consumers of electricity are forcing a solution of the issue.

Here's a wonderfully pertinent and interesting explanation of the situation made by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, which is opposing monopoly's extortion:

"Recent court revelation that most of the expenditures of the Union Electric Light & Power company represents merely water confirms the evidence of its charges for the service. The company's rate, average for all services, is, as nearly as the Post-Dispatch can learn, approximately 7 cents per kilowatt hour. It sells current to light residences at 6 to 9 cents; to light industrial plants at 3 cents upward, cutting the price when necessary to forestall or eliminate the competition of a private plant in factory or store. It sells current for power below 3 cents in some instances, the policy being to get all the traffic will bear in each transaction.

"The city of St. Louis owns and operates an electric light plant, supplying current to light several public buildings, but not to light the city streets. During eight years up to 1911 this municipal plant was managed by Joseph W. Wood.

"Mr. Wood's report showed the cost of producing current in the city's plant during that period was 1.1 (one and one-tenth) cents per kilowatt hour.

"Seattle's municipal electric light plant sells current in homes for 5 cents and earns a surplus.

"In Kansas City, Kan., the municipal plant is offering current for cooking at 3 cents and giving electric cooks free as a bonus.

"Glasgow, Scotland, a big city like St. Louis, making current from coal which costs it more than coal costs in St. Louis, sells current for lighting, heating, cooking and running machinery from its municipal plant from 2 1/2 to 4 cents, and turns a yearly surplus into the city treasury.

"Pasadena, Cal., was buying current from a company which supplies a number of coast cities. The rate was 15 cents. The people voted $125,000 of bonds to build a municipal plant. The company cut its rate to 12 1/2 cents and sued to enjoin the city from competing. The courts denied its plea for a monopoly.

The city built and cut to 9 cents. The company cut to 8. The city made a 6-cent rate. The company dropped to 5. The city met the 5-cent rate and the company cut to 4. Both plants are earning a profit. Pasadena users of electricity are saving every year (different between the 15-cent rate and the 4 and 5 cent rates) an amount almost equal to the cost of the city's plant.

"The St. Louis users of electricity pay the Union Electric Light & Power company each year approximately $3,500,000. Let a city plant cut the rate to 3 cents average—or more justly, from a municipal plant, to a 3-cent flat rate, treating all citizens customers alike, as they should be treated—and the yearly net savings in the cost of the service, on the present volume of business, would be close to $2,000,000.

"This saving for five years would pay for a municipal plant big enough to serve a city much larger than St. Louis and to make St. Louis the most perfectly lighted city of its size in the world.

"It would save enormous waste and labor in the homes by substituting electricity for coal and other fuels in heating and cooking.

"It would bring factories, seeking cheap power, here from less favored communities.

"It would vastly simplify the problem of getting for St. Louis the cheap rapid urban and suburban transportation which is today the city's most vital need.

"Why not give St. Louis, in the new charter, any powers it may lack to perform this service for itself and its people?

"The mere menace of universal service by a municipal plant, provided for in the charter, would force a substantial reduction in the private monopoly's rates."

Nothing stands in the way of Springfield entering the commercial lighting field except monopoly and its allies. The new Illinois statute recently enacted permits municipalities to sell electricity for commercial lighting purposes.

Monopoly's purpose in opposing the amalgamation of the city's water and light plants in such manner as will place the city in a comfortable position to enter the commercial lighting field, is obvious.

Mayor Schnepf, Commissioner Hamilton and Commissioner Davidson—all of them—should vote with Commissioners Coe and Spaulding to combine the plants and thus make unnecessary the special initiative election which approximately 5,000 people are demanding in the initiative petition.

While McFarland is generally regarded by his admirers as well high invincible it is conceded that Britton is about as capable as many in his class of holding his own against the Chicagoan. DID NOT MAKE NEW FIELD GOAL RECORD

BRICKLEY'S PERFORMANCE IN
YALE GAME NOT A RECORD
BREAKER.

Research Shows That Bernie Trafford of Harvard Eleven of 1890 Made a Greater Record in the Game With Cornell—Cornell Team of That Year Was Very Weak and Was Beaten 77 to 0.

New York, Dec. 6.—The spectacular manner in which Harvard defeated Yale in their annual football game, due to five field goals kicked by Charles E. Brickley, the Crimson fullback, has led to much delving into gridiron records to ascertain whether the feat was a record one, as claimed by many immediately after the game. Careful research has proved that Brickley did not make a new field goal record, but merely tied the one made by Bernie Trafford of the Harvard eleven of 1890 in the game with Cornell on November 1, of that year. In some respects Trafford's record was better than Brickley's, since all of his kicks were drop-kick field goals, while Brickley scored four in this manner and one from placement.

Cornell Team Very Weak.
The Cornell team of 1890 was very weak compared to the Yale eleven that faced Harvard on November 22 of this year. The Crimson combination defeated the Ithaca team of 1890 77 to 0, and Trafford kicked from behind a defense that was never tried in the manner that the Harvard eleven of 1913 was while holding back the Ells who aimed to block Brickley's kicks. Trafford never hurried at any time, kicked five drop-kick field goals out of seven attempts from the thirty and thirty-five yards lines, averaging thirty-three yards for all five. Brickley scored from the twenty-four, thirty-eight, thirty and twenty-two yard lines and his placement goal was made 39-yards from the Yale bar. This was a total distance of 155 yards and averaged thirty-one yards per kick.

Longest Run To Eckersall.
Other football records which have been reported as broken this season include the long field run and high score, but in neither case do the 1913 performances rank with those of other games. The longest run of football is credited to Walter Eckersall of the University of Chicago team, who ran 196 yards in the game of 1904 against Wisconsin. Eckersall caught the ball on a kick-off and ran from virtually his own goal line across Wisconsin at other end of the field, passing the entire Badger eleven in his flight. The record run from scrimmage is held by H. M. Coleman, of Wisconsin, who picked up the ball on a fumble in the Minnesota game of 1891 and ran 195 yards for a touchdown.

Number of Big Scores.
There have been an unusual number of big scores rolled up during the 1913 season and several of these have been claimed as records. Evansville, Ind., High School defeated Rockport, Ind., High School 143 to 0 on September 27; Oklahoma A and M, College defeated Phillips University 112 to 3 on October 15; the University of Louisville defeated Washington College 100 to 0 on October 18; Washington and Jefferson defeated Grove City 100 to 0 on November 1, and Gallaudet defeated Baltimore College 103 to 0. These high scores do not exceed some of the big totals made by famous eastern gridiron machines of past years, all things considered. Princeton scored 140 to 9 against Lafayette in 1889 and Yale defeated Wesleyan 130 to 0 in 1886. Some years ago the University of Buffalo by a score running into three figures to 0, Coach "Hurry-up" Yost tells an amusing story in connection with this game.

Knew When He Had Enough.

The contest was specially arranged and held during the Buffalo Exposition of 1901. Yost brought his famous "point-a-minute" machine from Michigan and the Wolverines proceeded to score touchdowns on almost every play. Buffalo had but eighteen players in the squad and soon all were badly used up. In order to continue it was necessary to relay these men. It was against the rules of those days to return a player to the game once he had been taken out, but Yost agreed to waive this rule under the conditions. In the game he saw a form nudged up under a Michigan blanket on his side line and fearing that one of his men had been hurt, Yost went over and lifted the blanket. Underneath lay a Buffalo uniformed player.

"Get over on your own side of the field," said Yost. "This is Michigan territory."

"Not for a thousand dollars," replied the player. "If I go back they will put me in the game again and I've been in and out five times now. I know when I've got enough if you don't."

LOCATES IN SPRINGFIELD.
H. C. Foulk of Springfield was in the city Saturday arranging to send his household goods to that place. Mr. Foulk was formerly proprietor of the Duval in this city and now with St. Nicholas Hotel in Springfield.

To the Public:

On December 20th the people of Jacksonville will be called upon to vote on the question of issuing $50,000.00 in bonds for the purpose of rebuilding the municipal lighting plant.

The Jacksonville Railway and Light Company has made a proposal to do the street lighting for $12,000.00 per year. It is our intention to tell the people, through the advertising columns of the daily newspapers, why we think our offer will be best for the city. We also wish to make clear the main points of our proposition.

We are going to be perfectly frank with the people. We are going to put our cards on the table. No honest cause can suffer from publicity, and we believe that the people of Jacksonville will, when they fully understand the cost of running the proposed municipal plant, prefer to make a contract with us at a fixed price.

There has been some talk in the past few days about the "Company's side" and the "Commissioners' side." We want it distinctly understood at the outset that there are no two sides to this question of public lighting. There is only one side, the side that means good street lighting for Jacksonville.

We believe we can show that our proposition will be the cheapest for the city, and give the best results to the citizens. And we want it to be clear that the coming election has nothing to do with franchises. The franchise question is not to be settled at this election, but at another date. If anyone talks franchise to you, ask him to get back to the real subject of this election, which is—

—Shall the people vote $50,000.00 to rebuild the worn-out city street lighting plant?

We ask you to read the advertisements which we shall publish during the next few days, and trust you will find them worthy of careful consideration.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

Much interest is being manifested in the lecture recital to be given by Miss Allen next Monday night in Music Hall. The first part of the program is on Browning's view of life, and the literary and moral significance of his work. The second part of the program is the interpretative reading of three of his dramatic monologues. Miss Allen is assistant in the department of expression and her first public appearance offers an exceptional treat to those interested in this class of work.

The Woman's College Guild will hold their first annual bazaar December 15 in Harker hall. On Saturday December 13, the Kitchen Circle of the Guild will hold a market in the Domestic Science cooking laboratory. Entables of all kinds, such as cakes, salad, pies, home-made bread, cookies, candies and other dainties too numerous to mention will be offered for sale. The proceeds of the bazaar conducted by the Guild will be used to purchase additional books for the library.

Miss Parsons, head of the school of expression, read before the open meeting of Sorosis Friday night. She has also been elected vice-president of the Drama League.

A number of the faculty and several of the students attended the Lohman-Rearick wedding in Ashland last Wednesday.

Dr. C. E. Black gave a very interesting lecture to the students at the chapel service Wednesday morning, December 3. His subject was "How to Treat Emergency Cases." Dr. Black presented the subject in a most interesting manner, and gave many hopeful suggestions in the "first aid to injured."

OLD COUNTY RESIDENT HAS PASSED AWAY

JOHN W. CRUM ANSWERED THE FINAL SUMMONS SATURDAY.

Came Here as a Young Man and
With Passing Years Acquired Large Land Interests.—Was Last
of Group of Brothers.—Reminis-cences of Earlier Days.

John W. Crum, one of the early settlers of Morgan county, died Saturday morning at his home near Litterberry following a long illness.
He was a man who had through long years been held in the highest esteem
by a vast number of friends.

Mr. Crum was born December 25, 1825, a happy Christmas gift in the family of his worthy father, who lived near the southern border, not far from Louisville, Ky. His father was a native of old Virginia, but the exact place of his birth is not known to the present family. He removed to Kentucky when a young man and engaged in teaching school for some time, marrying in the meantime and beginning the foundation of a large

The Late John W. Crum.

family, all of whom did him honor
as long as they lived. After his first child was born he moved to Indiana to be on free soil and there lived for many years and reared a goodly number of sons and daughters. They were in the order of their respective ages, Christian, James, David, who lived successfully in Macoupin county and Missouri; Gordon, who lived in Macoupin county; Polly, afterward Mrs. Cobb; Joseph, who lived in Macoupin county and later in Paxton, Ill.; Betsy, afterward Mrs.
O'Neal; twins, who died in infancy;
Becky, who died when three years old; Isaac, who lived in Iowa; Samuel, who lived in California; Abraham and John W.

Those whose residences are not otherwise mentioned resided until death in this vicinity and all were well known. All have gone to the reward, "Uncle John" being the youngest and last to go. One of the best known was James of Cass county. He amassed a good fortune by judicious managing of a large farm and handling stock. Among his children, Mrs. Howard Thompson, formerly of Jacksonville, and Mrs.
Dr. Willson, of Tallula, are well known and stand high in the communities in which they live.

Looked For Larger Farms.

In early manhood the sons thought their homes and surroundings too cramped and so they decided to strike into new territory and seek their fortunes and chose central Illinois, where after hearing stories of rich land and cheap prices and they showed their good judgment by selecting what is now known as Morgan and Cass counties as the place of their residence. It was about 1831 that Christian and James were sent on ahead, like the twelve spies by Moses, to view the land though not to buy it out. They didn't return with a big bunch of grapes and a stock between them nor figs and pomegranates nor did they tell of giants, the sons of Anak but they did tell of broad prairies, fertile and cheap and of springs of water which were especially prized and many other things, so that about September 14th, the fall after the famous "deep snow" the Crum family located near what is now the north part of this county.

The brothers had been here the year before but they were not man-tled by the deep snow or many other drawbacks. Of course the were hardships to be overcome and trials and difficulties in the way, but the sturdy people of those days cared little for them so long as they had health and strength. All were social and caste was practically unknown while neighbors were friends in the true sense of the word and helped each other and entertained with a lavish hand making welcome
all comers to their humble abodes, supplying pallets on the floor or in the loft and good corn pone and fat pork at the table and these the good appetites of the eaters made a sweet morsel.

Values Grew With Years.

The father brought some means with him and took care to secure a goodly amount of land which he wisely foresaw would be the best investment for his family though he little dreamed what would be the value of it in later years.

It was also his desire that each child should be started out with at least $100 and what other property might be available. He died when the "little boys" John and Abe were young and Christian was made John's guardian and acted the honorable and prudent part of an elder brother.
The father also desired that Abe and John should have the home

place if it could be brought about all right. The personal effects of the senior Crum and a good yoke of oxen brought $32, which today would see an insignificant price but it was good for those days.

John and Abe went to work to buy
out the other heirs of the home place and finally succeeded, and as far as is known, there was little, if any, friction in the family. Often at night the families heard the howling of wolves and sometimes a domestic would be missing and game of all kinds abounded in the woods. It was not unusual to take a rifle and bring in a wild turkey or a deer
while small game was very plentiful and aided materially in varying the humble bill of fare enjoyed by the families.

Some Early Settlers.
Some of the early settlers were Martin Hoagland, the Dominicans, Peter Conover, who hailed from the state of New Jersey and named the vicinity Jersey Prairie; Martin Coons, Allen Lindsay, Venable Elder
well known preacher and many others.

The early years of the family were spent in the same manner as those of other persons of that period. They worked in the summer, went to school in the winter, to church when they had an opportunity, had their spelling schools and various minor pastimes. The good ladies had quilting parties while they helped each other buttering days, cut apples
when the trees were large enough to produce the fruit, and in various ways managed to enjoy life in a manner calculated to make sturdy men and women.

Uncle John was married in 1849
to Mary A. Coons who was mother of all his children and was truly a helpmeet in every sense of the word. Mrs. Crum died, leaving a noble record of a useful life. Mr.
Crum married the second time, his wife being Mrs. Della Orear Eades, a woman of a lovely character. She was never very strong and lived but a few years which were full of happiness till death called her to the home above. Mr. Crum was married again to Mrs. Celia Humphrey Crum, who was true and faithful to him to the last.

The Crum Family.

His children are Samuel H., Matthias M., familiarly known as "Tee," William, James A., and Charles W.,
the last two residents of this city and the others live on farms near Litter-berry. Matthias was named by friends of the family gathered at an infirmary given Uncle Abe, it being the dominant consent of all that the baby should have the name of his two grandfathers.

Mr. Crum was also grandfather of fifteen children who will faithfully
and honorably perpetuate the name.
For the greater part of his life Mr.
Crum was a member of the Baptist church and did much to support it and help in all good words and works. He has been a force for good all his life. He was prominent in business affairs, trustee, guardian and other important offices being committed to him. He has always discharged all his duties with zeal and fidelity leaving no stain on his name in any way.

In politics he was a whig and from the beginning of that party he was a Republican, voting for the immortal Lincoln and his successors and he has lived to see a great many campaigns and has always taken his honorable part in all of them. During the civil war he was patriotic and did much to support the hands of the government and later on when more men were needed he did much to secure funds for bounties and at a meeting for the purpose in Arcadia, he, his brother Abe, Squire Henderson and John Thompson each gave $100. Then he was made the chief individual to go about and secure a fund of $5,000 with which to secure men to fill the ranks of the district and he was taken to his brother Abe and J. Peterfish and Mr.
Mink were made a committee to secure men to enlist.

They had some stirring experiences some of which will not be wisely repeated now for the war is over. He and his family were loyal to the core and his family have just cause for pride in that fact. His last years were quietly spent in his pleasant home and he passed away leaving a large circle of friends and relatives to do him honor.

COMING FRIDAY.

One of the most interesting announcements of coming attractions is that of Fiske O'Hara in a new Irish play from the pen of Augustus Pilon, the author who furnished
most of the successes for Scanlan and Olcott. The title of the play is "In Old Dublin," and it is booked for presentation at The Grand Friday, Dec. 12th. The author has gone to that period of Irish life which has afforded novelists with more material than perhaps any other in Irish history, the early part of the 19th century. It was a prolific period in the production of great Irishmen and one when Dublin boasted of one of the most exclusive and fashionable society sets in Europe. The character played by Mr. O'Hara is a type that could be found in those days and is one of those delightful personages that make the pages of Lever and Maxwell so fascinating. The superb tenor voice of Mr. O'Hara will be heard in a number of new songs and in some of the old Irish melodies.

BLOOMINGTON LIGHT PLANT WELL OPERATED

TUNGSTEN SYSTEM FURNISHES SPLENDID ILLUMINATION FOR STREETS.

City Operates Light and Water Departments Together as Matter of Economy—Plant Equipment Includes Duplicate of Generator Recently Installed at Jacksonville Plant—Bloomington Considers Municipal Ownership a Success.

When a Jacksonville citizen arrived in Bloomington a few nights since and walked up the main street leading to the business portion of the city he was impressed by the fact that Bloomington is exceedingly well lighted. It was a late hour at night, or to be more exact, an early hour in the morning. Nevertheless, on practically every corner a tungsten lamp was spreading illumination, for the municipal plant there is operated on an all night schedule. There were not a great many people abroad on the streets, but of the first four that the Jacksonville citizen met not one was able to tell the location of the municipal plant. In truth, they were in doubt as to whether or not Bloomington had a plant. This fact is not insignificant except as it emphasizes the point that the average citizen moves along a well lighted city street where he lives and gives no thought as to the source of the light which makes those streets safe for his use by night as well as day.

Divide Coal Costs. The fact is, however, that Bloomington has a municipal plant and an inquiry among business men indicates that the plant has been operated with such general satisfaction that there has been no occasion for citizens to discuss at great length anything relative to its efficiency. As a matter of economy the light and water departments are operated together, although the accounts are kept separately. For example, 40 percent of the coal consumed is charged to the light department and 60 per cent to the water department. The plant represents an expenditure of $121,000, which includes the original cost of installation and the improvements which have been made from time to time. The system of centralizing the power and operating the light plant and the water department's pumps from the same energy producing equipment has been found satisfactory and economical.

Although Bloomington is a larger city than Jacksonville, conditions are somewhat similar in the two cities, as the residence district here presents practically the same lighting problem as in that city. In the matter of water supply Bloomington secures the greater portion of its supply from well, which are much like those sunk on the Widenham and Daub property. In Bloomington they are perhaps a little deeper than is true here, but are sunk into a bed of gravel of about the same thickness as that from which the Widenham and Daub wells are operated.

Arcs Abandoned for Tungstens. Bloomington originally had a system of arc lamps, although now that system has been changed almost wholly into a series of tungsten system. This electrical equipment includes three units, a sixty-five K. W. generator, direct connected, to a Buckeye engine, simple and direct connection and non-condensing; a 200 K. W. Fort Wayne generator, direct connected to a Hamilton four valve engine run condensing; a 250 K. W. Western electric generator, direct connected to a cross compound Buckeye engine, all operated at a potential of 2300. The generators are 60 cyc. and 2 phase. The boiler equipment consists of 2 Heine 360 H. P. mechanically stoked boilers with the usual appurtenances. From these boilers is secured pressure for pumping the wells and energy for operating the plant. There are three 50 horse power, 2300 volt, vertical motors operating the centrifugal pumps which deliver the water into a reservoir at the main power plant. There are also five motors with an aggregate horse power of 155 at the Lee street plant, which is operated only in times of great stress, the wells there being controlled jointly by the C. & A. railroad and the city.

The Street Equipment. The street lighting equipment includes 620 two hundred candle power, street series tungsten lamps, which are operated on a moonlight schedule. This does not mean that they are turned off every moonlight night, but when the night is clear and the moon is shining the lights are not in use. But as the plant is operated day and night for the water department, if there is a change in the weather or atmospheric condition it is only a question of switching on the lights in the residence district. In the business district there are 166 street light poles or boulevard lamps, each being equipped with 560 watt multiple tungsten lamps. The one on the top burns all night and the four below it are turned off at midnight. In addition there is a special circuit which furnishes the light for municipal buildings and for a few alleys, the waterworks and the light plant itself. This circuit provides the lights for five engine houses, the public library and a connected load of 15 K. W. at the city hall.

Change Cut Costs. The system was changed from arcs to tungstens in March, 1912, and subsequent records have proven that the change cut the coal consumption right in two. It eliminated the cost of carbons and also that of trimmers' wages. A 200 watt tungsten lamp costs $1.60 and based on the Bloomington experience the life of such a lamp is on an average of one year.

This change, made as stated above in March, 1912, has in a year's time saved enough money to use for the purchase of an engine and generator at New Haven, New Jersey. It cost $4,000 and is an exact duplicate of that which was recently purchased and installed as a part of the Jacksonville municipal plant. The authorities in charge of the Bloomington plant have this machinery in operation and consider that it is worth to the plant $11,000 as new equipment of the same kind would have cost that amount.

History of Plant. The Bloomington plant was originally built in 1889, and was rebuilt in 1907, when the direct current generators, such as we still have in the Jacksonville municipal plant were taken out and the alternating current machines substituted. It was this change which later made it possible to abandon the arc lamps and install tungsten lamps in the same hood. The system is working satisfactory, although the management of the plant is hampered part of the time by insufficient boiler capacity. The special need, however, for another boiler is that there may be some reserve power in case of trouble with the equipment. Some of the lines too are old and worn and need replacing. It is also true that some underground cable work would be a desirable addition to the equipment of the system. The better equipment noted it is possible to use screenings for fuel and this costs $1.55 delivered at the plant. The Bloomington & Normal Railway & Light Co. is owned by the McKinley syndicate and its power is generated from a splendidly equipped plant there, which has just been rebuilt. Thus far there have been no overtures made by the McKinley people to sell current to Bloomington. C. C. Williams is the city electrician and has held the office for three years. He is a man with technical training and is operating the plant in a very successful way. The annual appropriation for the maintenance of the light plant is $20,000, and last year the total power generated was 1,681,385 K. W. hours.

Tackle Catarrh Now Be Free All Winter

Avoid Colds, Stail Pneumonia, Keep Your Nose Clear and Your Throat Free.

Don't Wait Till You're All Bugged Up. Use S. S. S. Now.

If you will go into any first class store and get a bottle of S. S. S. you are on the way to getting rid of Catarrh. But don't let anyone work off that old trick of something "Just as good."

S. S. S. is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectively cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

The medicinal components of S. S. S. are relatively just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritive properties of the grains, meats, sugars, and fats of foods. Any local irritating influence in the blood is rejected by the tissue cells and eliminated by reason of the stimulating influence of S. S. S.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely catarrh often infests the entire system.

You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write to The Swift Specific Co., 202 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

RETURNS FROM TRIP TO PANAMA CANAL

Frank Elliott and Son Spend Pleasant and Profitable Time in Central America.

Frank Elliott, president of the Elliott State bank, had a very interesting trip with his son to Central America. They sailed in a fruit company steamer which they found very good and acceptable in every particular and are loud in their praise of the accommodations. It is a trip of several days from New Orleans and the passengers left the ship at Colon, Panama, and taking an automobile proceeded to view the great canal. They went to Culebra where they saw the big cut and landslide which deposited 75 acres in the canal and which is being rapidly removed.

They were much impressed by the magnitude of the enterprise and its excellent condition with the exception of the slide. On that they are at work on both sides of the debris and its removal will not take very long. Panama seems to be prosperous and this country has done wonders there in many ways.

They next went to Port Limon, Costa Rica, which required two days and there again left the boat and had a wonderfully beautiful and interesting railroad ride across the country through tropical forests of surpassing loveliness. The road rises almost 500 feet and down again on the Pacific slope to San Jose, the capital of the country. On the trip they passed through jungles, banana plantations and many kinds of tropical scenery which was very interesting and lovely.

They took the boat to Bocu del Torro in the northeast part of Panama where there is a good harbor along with some other facilities. Back of it twelve miles the United Fruit company is building a city called Almarante and is pushing it right along after the western boom fashion. There they were the guests of the Fruit company and rode over some parts of 70,000 acres of banana plantations and saw the fruit growing in great luxuriance.

Their ship took on 38,000 bunches of fruit and it was interesting to watch the work. The bunches are borne to the railroad by little donkeys which carry four and no more and have a load of over 300 pounds. A man carefully watches the loading and if a bunch has a bruised, decayed or even ripe banana on it it is rejected. On the ship several were found, lung up and the passengers were permitted to eat what they wished and the rest of the bunch was thrown overboard. The fruit is placed in cold storage on the ship where the temperature is kept at about 45 degrees and as soon as the vessel arrives in New Orleans it is rapidly unloaded and fruit hastened to its destination.

The ride from Colon to New Orleans was accomplished in the usual time and the tourists returned much pleased with their trip.

WHY ARE YOU SO TIRED

The Weather Is Not To Blame for That "Dragged Out Feeling."

"This weather simply takes the life right out of me. I can hardly drag one foot after the other," said a run down, tired out woman, the other day.

We want to say to every such person in this vicinity. Don't blame the weather; it's your condition. You need a strengthening tonic and the very best we know is Vinol, which is a combination of the two most world famous tonics, namely, the medicinal, curative elements of cod liver oil and tonic iron, for the blood.

A case has just come to our attention from Milford, Mich. Mrs. Julia Barber says: "I was run down and hardly able to drag about; my appetite was poor and I was not able to work. My druggist asked me to try Vinol. The first bottle helped me and after taking the second bottle I was able to work and felt well and strong. Vinol is the best medicine I have ever taken."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.—Lee P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

HOLLAND'S DAY TO CELEBRATE

The Hague, Dec. 6.—The coincidence of an important historical anniversary falling on the nation's most popular festival day served to put all Holland on fete today. No festival in Holland exercises a more enchanting spell over both young and old than the Dutchman's "Feast of St. Nicholas." The jolly old patron saint of children corresponds in this country to the Father Christmas in other lands, though coming three weeks earlier.

It so happened that the festival this year came on the centennial anniversary of Holland's independence. It was just one hundred years ago today that the prince of Orange was proclaimed sovereign prince of the United Netherlands. After having chafed under the domination of the French for a number of years, the sturdy Hollanders had taken advantage of Napoleon's perplexities elsewhere and by a sudden revolution had succeeded in throwing off the foreign yoke. The prince of Orange was recalled from his exile in England and invited to resume the sovereignty that had been exercised by his forefathers. Early in 1814 he took the oath of fidelity as sovereign prince and ascended the throne as King William I.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Helen F. Robinson recently resigned her position as teacher of Gymnastics in the college. The trustees have appointed as her successor Miss Jeannette M. Taylor of West College avenue. Miss Taylor has also been engaged to train the girls of Whipple Academy for their annual contest in declamation.

Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel will speak at the chapel exercises Tuesday morning on "Life in Brazil." Any friends who may be interested to hear Mrs. Carriel are cordially invited.

A large gathering of teachers from the public schools and private institutions of the city gathered at the home of President and Mrs. Rammelkamp on Thursday evening to listen to an address on the Aewards of Teaching, by President David Felmsley of Normal University.

The regular monthly meeting of the faculty was held on Wednesday afternoon. The report of the Dean indicated that the grade of work that is being done by the college students is unusually good.

The college library is now open evenings from seven to ten. This practice will be made permanent if the use which students make of the library seems to justify such a policy.

The directors of the alumni fund have issued their second annual report. It is an interesting document of some twenty-four pages. The subscriptions for the year have increased over three hundred dollars as compared with the previous year. The total amount subscribed this year is nearly two thousand dollars. Part of this amount is set aside as an alumni endowment fund, and another part is contributed to the running expenses of the college. There are now two hundred and fifty three alumni and former students who have joined the alumni association. The report also contains obituary notices of Samuel Willard '43, Paul Selby '53 and John Milton Eaman '59.

A meeting of the Rhodes Scholarship committee, of which President Rammelkamp is a member, will be held in Chicago on Monday, December 15. At this meeting a Rhodes scholar, to represent the state of Illinois at Oxford, will be selected. Dean F. S. Hayden will represent Illinois college at the inauguration of Dr. George Emery Fellows, as President of James Millikin University, next Tuesday.

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

DEMAND IS IMPROVED ON STOCK EXCHANGE

OFFERINGS AT CONCESSIONS
ARE READILY ACCEPTED.

Only Movements of Consequence in the Market Were Made Soon After the Opening—Small Decline in Favorites Stimulated Buying—
Later a Recession Cancelled Gains.

New York, Dec. 6.—There were indications today of a steady absorption of the high grade account of the high grade stocks, such as has been apparent for some time past.
Offerings at concessions were accepted readily but no effort was made to force up the list aggressively.
The improved demand recently is taken in some quarters as an indication of larger investment purchasing, such as is always looked for around this time of the year, but has been abnormally small in the last two years. The only movements of consequence in stocks today occurred shortly after the opening. Small declines in some of the favorite shares stimulated buying and the list was quickly placed well above yesterday's close. Then came a recession on which gains were cancelled and the market thereafter barely moved.

Although the poor prospects for the bank statement had aroused some apprehension, the showing proved exceptionally strong. The cash loss of less than $3,000,000 smaller than looked for. The most striking change, however, was a contraction in actual loans of $31,314,000 which showed the extent to which the banks had gone to correct the position disclosed last week and fully explained the tightness of the money market this week. Reserve requirements were reduced so sharply in spite of the cash loss last week's deficit was converted into surplus of $7,645,000.

MORTUARY

Berscheid.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lehr returned home yesterday from Mendota, where they attended the funeral services of Mrs. Lehr's mother, Mrs. Julia Berscheid, who died suddenly from a stroke of paralysis, while visiting with relatives in La Verne, Iowa. Her maiden name was Julia Weber and she was born in Germany, October 13, 1841, at the age of 72 years. She came to this country when 9 years of age and at the age of 18 was married to Matthew Berscheid and to this union 14 children were born. Ten of the fourteen children are living. HORSE AND BUGGY ARE

LOCATED IN CENTRALIA

Man and Woman who Stole Property of Dr. and Mrs. David Reid are Locked up in Marion County Jail. Prisoners Will be Brought Here Tomorrow.

After being stolen since Monday, Dr. and Mrs. David Reid found their horse and buggy in Centralia Saturday and the man and woman who stole the outfit are in the Centralia jail. Robert Reid went to Litchfield Thursday, having learned that parties had been seen headed for that place, who had a rig which answered the description. Communication was made from there by phone throughout that section and it was finally learned that the parties had reached Centralia and there is where Mr. Reid finally located the stolen property. The horse seemed to be none the worse off for the 150 mile ride, over bad roads.

The only name the man is known by is Dick, he having given a fictitious name. The woman's name is Essie Marsh. It is believed that the woman had a husband in St. Louis and that the pair belonged to a combination of horse thieves, who were going about the country and driving the animals to St. Louis.

Sheriff Rogers was notified and two warrants were sworn out before Squire Dyer for the arrest of the twain. A deputy will go to Centralia today, via Decatur over the Illinois Central and it is expected that the officer will return Monday with his prisoners. Dr. and Mrs. Reid are much elated over the finding of their highly prized family horse. The son expects to ship the horse and rig back.

CITY'S ENGINE AND GENERATOR

WILL SOON BE READY FOR BUSINESS

Contract Let to Ft. Wayne Company For Necessary Changes on Generator at Cost of $155—Will Be Used For Pumping From Widenham & Daub Wells.

During recent days and weeks there have been various stories advo that the engine and generator which was purchased at Weehawken, N. J., by the city council on recommendation of Commission Brennan was of the wrong type, could not be used for the purpose intended and was in fact just a pile of junk. The facts are that this is a two phase 3 wire generator and that it could not be used for pumping the Widenham & Daub wells unless a change was made in the armatures of the generator or new transformers were installed at the wells.

L. A. Carr, a representative of the Fort Wayne Electric company has been in the city during recent days and has closed a contract with the city for changes on the armature of the generator which will cost exactly $155. The Ft. Wayne company guarantees that with this change the equipment will be in proper condition to pump from the wells.

GIVES FINE RECITAL AT

SPRINGFIELD CONSERVATORY

Miss Emma Almslee Moore of this city, who is teaching this winter in the Springfield Conservatory of Music, appeared Friday evening in a splendid musical program before a large audience of Springfield music lovers. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Berdan Tiffany whose successful phrasing was in perfect harmony with her rich soprano voice. The program included the "Aria from 'Odysseus'" containing some very difficult passages which she sang in a very able manner.

Miss Moore has taught heretofore in the south but took a position this year equally desirable and much nearer home.

The Illinois State Register, in speaking of Miss Moore's singing says, "Her versatility is remarkable, her phrasing tasteful and her enunciation so good that one has the double enjoyment of the words and the music."
